ICSOM Delegates

Following are the names of persons who have served as ICSOM delegates. The record, especially before 1981, is not always clear or complete. Some orchestras elect delegates before and other orchestras after the conference to serve for the following year, making it difficult to determine the exact period of service. In some cases, persons who did not attend conferences served during the year. The lists below are therefore somewhat imprecise. Where it is clear from mailing lists, personnel lists, and (in years for which no lists are extant) from mention in conference minutes that an elected or appointed representative attended a conference in place of the regular delegate, this is noted. Observers from orchestras which at one time were ICSOM members are marked with an o after the date. Where justified by previous examples, ICSOM officers were assumed to also have been the delegates for their orchestras. Where there are gaps (no date given), it can be reasonably assumed (but not with certainty) that one of the persons listed was serving as delegate. Except for the conferences in 1962 and 1963 or where there is uncertainty about who was the primary (voting) delegate, alternate delegates (additional persons from the same orchestra) are not shown in this listing.

Of interest: In 1996-98, and 2001, two pair of siblings served as ICSOM delegates: brothers Bruce Ridge (North Carolina) and David Ridge (San Francisco Opera), and sisters Stephanie Tretick (Pittsburgh) and Blythe Tretick (Phoenix). The Ridges were also present in 1999, the Treticks in 2000. These are the only years siblings served simultaneously as delegates to ICSOM conferences.

Also in 1990, 1996 and 1997, Eva Carol Beck served as ICSOM delegate from two member orchestras, Grant Park and Chicago Lyric Opera; in 2010 Thalia Moore served as ICSOM delegate from both the San Francisco Ballet Orchestra and San Francisco Opera Orchestra.

In addition, a number of delegates have served as delegates for two different orchestras: Paul Ganson served as ICSOM delegate for the Dallas Symphony in 1968 and for the Detroit Symphony from 1970-71; Charles Schlueter served as ICSOM delegate for the Minnesota Orchestra in 1979 and for the Boston Symphony from 1990-2001; David Everson served as ICSOM delegate for the Kansas City Symphony in 1998 and for the Detroit Symphony from 2001-02 and again from 2009-11; John Lofton served as ICSOM delegate for the Phoenix Symphony from 1990-95 and again from 1999-2005 and for the Los Angeles Philharmonic beginning in 2011.
